

2011 BEDFORD FARMERS' MARKET NEWSLETTER

www.Bedfordmarket.org

Monday 12:30 – 5:30 PM
June 13 - October 17

Volume 4 Issue 19

MONDAY IS the last MARKET DAY

October 14, 2011

JOIN US FOR THE FINAL MARKET OF THE 2011 !

SPECIAL VENDORS:

TJ's Teas: Estate-grown, loose-leaf, specialty teas in three varieties: Ginger, Mint, and Original Majestic Black Ceylon. Buy now and make the winter months warmer.

Don't forget the teas lovers on your holiday list!

Karol Peralta: Lovely, feminine, colorful Swarovski crystal bracelets, earrings and necklaces.

Alysson Makiej, the Hoop Doctor: Colorful, core strengthening hula hoops. Lessons and sales.

Original holiday gift giving opportunities abound at the Market!

ARTISAN OF THE WEEK:

Deborah Rochman: Delightful, hand-crafted jewelry and accessories.

ENTERTAINMENT: Bedford favorite Ken Pruyn performs show tunes, country music, and easy listening styles accompanied by guitar and harmonica.

KIDS: Bring in your home-grown pumpkin! We'll take your photo and you'll receive a prize! We'll have bubbles and chalk, too.

Vegetables and Fruit expected this week: Pumpkins, many varieties of apples, pears, tomatoes, eggplant, broccoli garlic, onions, potatoes, lettuce, red and green cabbages, kale, beets, assorted winter squashes, chard, scallions, green peppers, assorted herbs and flowers, freshly-pressed cider.

BFM board members—Barb Purchia, Moira Sarson, Leslie Wittman, Chris Lipson, Jerry Wolf, and Kim Siebert— extend our sincerest thanks to our customers, farmers, volunteers, and the many supporters and friends throughout town. It was a fun-filled, healthy-eating summer and we look forward to seeing you again, starting in June, at the Market!